

BITS OF NEWS

Truck driven by Otto Slagle hit car on 39th st. 15 hurt.

Harold Hoops to lose second wife. Former Hortense Carson to sue for divorce.

Fire swept Forest of Arden near Joliet. Threatened Tubercular Camp of Chicago Associated Charities.

Chas. Wolmer, 4621 N. Central Park av., contractor, missing since July 13, returned. No explanation.

Woman believed to be Mrs. Bodin, 2417 N. Halsted st., hit by car at Halsted and Lincoln sts. Skull fractured.

Two women and two men were arrested by morals men in rooming-house at 4355 S. State st. J. J. Rogan booked as keeper.

Fire from fuse caused panic on Oak Park 'L' train at Lake and Clinton sts. Wome nbruised.

C. R. Crane denied was offered job on Federal Reserve Board.

Report that U. S. officials will seize Chicago oleo plant denied by Dist. Att'y Wilkerson.

Mrs. Mary Donohue, 511 W. 59th st., grappled with robber who seized pocketbook near home. Thief fled. Purse saved.

Cora Lepage left home at 3226 W. 12th st., to answer ad for job last Tuesday. Missing.

George Cherupolus, 1438 Jackson blvd., lost $400 and revolver from under pillow.

PROBE LIEUTENANT'S ACTIONS

The civil service commission began its inquiry into the activities of Lieuts. James P. Allman, Mike Morrissey and James McMahon of the 22d street station.

Former Capt. Ryan appeared as star witness for the defense and George Ackerman of the morals squad appeared for the prosecution.

Ackerman told of the many raids made by the squad. Ryan said that any one not known in the district could have made the same raids.

Frank Comerford appeared as counsel for the defense. George L. Reker acted as prosecutor.

IT'S GREAT, TOO!

By Jim Manes.

My collar's full of neck, folks.

My shoes are full of feet,

My hat is full of hair and

My heart is full of beat.

My home is full of happiness,

My arms are full of wife,

By gosh I'm full of something,

But I'm only full of life.

P. S.—"I'm not full of what you mean!"

CHICAGO GRAIN.—War talk caused wheat first to jump and then to slump to a loss of from 5 to 6 cents last night. Corn also eased off. Oats declined. Provisions down.

SAYINGS OF MR. MOUSE

WEATHER FORECAST

Partly cloudy tonight and tomorrow, possibly local showers; no important change in temperature; light to moderate variable winds. Temperature Thursday—Highest, 76; low est, 68.